

The Writers Circle™

creative writing workshops

Want your kids reading and writing this summer?

Join us for...

This two-hour per afternoon, week-long program is chock-full of writing games, wacky prompts, and time to sink into a favorite book just to read! Seasoned writers will be challenged by story starters unlike anything they've seen in school. Reluctant writers will find TWC's interactive games and prompts an irresistible invitation to start creating. Our collaborative, energetic environment will lay the foundation for kids to let loose and let the words flow.
