Dear Parents and Guardians,

The Municipal Alliance and Wharton Police Department are two of the most passionate organizations that support the school. Whether it be assisting the district in funding special events, providing vital anti-drug and internet safety programs for both children and families, or keeping our students and staff safe with frequent visits to the school, these two organizations view the school as the hub of the community and work to serve the children of Wharton.

As part of the Municipal Alliance/Fraternal Order of Police Carnival this year, there will be a "Tricky Tray" to abet the various endeavors they donate funds to. With that, I would like to support them in supplying items for this event.

Each grade level has been assigned a "Basket Theme" and students in each grade level will be asked to contribute item(s) or a dollar to help fill their grade level basket with products for their assigned theme.

Pre-K and Kindergarten: Movie Theme: Student may donate $1 or items related to going to a movie.

Grades 1 and 2: Beach Theme: Students may donate beach towels, sunscreen, pool toys, a small cooler, pail, shovel, etc, or $1.

Grades 3 and 4: Cookout Theme: Students may donate plates, napkins, oven mitts, tongs, sauces, bug spray, Frisbee, etc., or $1.

Grades 5 and 6: Kid Supplies: Students may donate crayons, colored pencils, markers, crafts, puzzle books, playing cards, etc. or $1.

Grades 7 and 8: Basket for Rainy Day: Students may donate board games, snacks, DVDs, etc or $1.

Please consider giving back to these organizations that do so much for the children of Wharton. Donations will be collected in homerooms through the month of May.

Thank you in advance for your support,

Christopher J. Herdman
Superintendent
